Calling All Presenters!

2023 Presentation Proposals Accepted Now Through June 16, 2022!

The 2023 OR Business Management Conference Program Committee is seeking experts to speak at next year's event. Do you have a case study to share or first-hand experience in managing the profitability of your OR? We want to hear from you!

We're looking for abstracts armed with take-home tools to help hospitals and surgery centers drive revenue, streamline processes, reduce expenses and increase productivity. Submit your abstract today!

Here are some topic ideas that draw interest:

- Capital investment expansion in new surgical service lines
- Data mining and preparing for your OR governance team
- Coding, billing, auditing
- AI, robotics and future trends
- Predictive analytics
- Navigating supply chain disruptions
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Vendor relationships and cost comparison models
- Block scheduling optimization
- Cost reduction strategies
- Workforce challenges
- Strategies to maximize efficiencies and profitability in the OR

Have another idea that is pertinent to business managers in today's healthcare environment? Share it with us!

Take advantage of this opportunity to speak at the only conference dedicated to teaching OR business managers, administrators, directors, and C-suite executives how to maximize efficiencies and increase profitability in the OR. Give back to your community while positioning yourself and your institution as thought leaders in the industry!
